

Red Phoenix Reverse Swept Green Vipers 2-1 in a Three-set Classic

Red Phoenix spiked their way to a 2-1 comeback sweep over Green Vipers in DSPC Boys Regu Showdown held at Dipolog Pilot Demonstration School on January 26, 2025.

On his clutch plays, Jhon Kian Pacuyao of Red Phoenix held the match in a tight grip, disrupting Green Vipers' strategy and gameplay in a back-and-forth rally up until the later sets.

"Nalipay mi nga nag-bunga and among mga tranings ug kakapoy," said Pacuyao after winning the match, "Ako bahala" —a powerful statement on stepping up for his teammates under pressure, showing that leadership starts from nothing to triumph.

Tekong starts the first set, with Red Phoenix carrying the momentum and advancing over Green Vipers, taking an early lead, 7-2 on tally.

Flying spikes and pride in the early phase, with the defensive tactics of both teams edging the match until one kill shot from Green Vipers leading the way to securing set one, 0-1.

As the second set starts, the atmosphere favors Green Vipers, giving the Red Phoenix an early 7-1 blowout.

Minutes after that, Red Phoenix delivers a strong offensive performance, tying the score from nine points lead to 14-14, Pacuyao with a powerful rollspike claims set two 1-1.

The final set of the match begins; one great kick will determine winners or break hearts.

Opposing teams took the challenge on taking over set three securing back-to-back scores; Red Phoenix delivers the final blow with an astonishing iconic tekong from Pacuyao, leading the game into 2-1 reverse sweep.

Red Phoenix took pride in their victory, seeking for improvements and soaring high for their next up-level competitions ahead.
